Ethiopian and Southern Sudan Brethren ...,cont.

We are without words to express what joy and gladness there is to see all of this growth there. What a blessing Yahweh has performed through His people. Praise Yahweh! May He protect and continually guide us all through His Righteous Son, Yahshua, into the coming Kingdom and eternal life.

We also thank Elder Gatluak Mong for the updates and staying in communication with us.

From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My worshipers, My dispersed ones, will bring My offerings, Zephaniah 3:10, NASB.

*Envoys will come out of Egypt; Ethiopia will quickly stretch out her hands to Elohim.
Sing to Elohim, O kingdoms of the earth. Sing praises to Yahweh, Psalm 68:31–32, NASB.*

More Paper for More Outreach

We were surprised that a large semi could get in and out of the parking lot for a paper delivery. Because we had widened the driveways last year, it was able to be done. Usually, they deliver pallets with a smaller truck/van. We thank Yahweh to be able to reach out and do what we can for Him and His Glory.

What Does Love Mean?

A company of professional people posed this question to a group of 4 to 8-year-olds: “What Does Love Mean?” Their answers were deeper than any could have imagined.

Of the nineteen respondents, the pick of their query was a 4-year-old whose next-door neighbor was an elderly man who’d lost his wife. When the child saw the man cry, he went over and just sat on the man’s lap. Afterward, the boy’s mother asked him what he’d said to their neighbor, and he replied, “Nothing. I just helped him cry.”

This account set us to mind of Another Who looked upon the multitudes and was much moved, because they fainted and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no Shepherd; of One whom an assembly of mourners took notice, that in having come to the tomb of His friend, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled, and wept ... oh, not so much for His friend Whom He would raise up, but for them whom He often would have gathered, as a hen her brood under her wings but they would not.

And it is no different now. Men become teary-eyed with the reading of the professionals’ pick of a 4-year-old whose reasonable service was just to sit on a crying, elderly man’s lap and help him mourn the loss of his wife, while discounting the tears of the Other Who, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, longs to gather them, as sheep ... faint and scattered abroad, having no Shepherd!

We
love because He first loved us.
1 John 4:19
