Come, Now is the Time!

“Come, Now is the Time to Worship,” has been a popular song of the past. Three ministers, in fact, collectively came together to use their musical talents to praise the Heavenly Father giving new energy to the song. They didn’t use His name, but they had the right intention. Though their song now fades into the background, as new ones are produced by various artists, the call to worship is still urgent.

For those that do use the Sacred Names of both the Father (Yahweh) and the Son (Yahshua), there is a collective cry that “Now is the time!” Even the Apostle Paul said in his day, “Now is the day of salvation!”

We then, as workers together with Him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of Elohim in vain. For He saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation, 2 Corinthians 6:1-2.

Time for True Worship

As we see certain “signs of the times,” we must realize that the purpose for us today is to draw close to our Father through His Son. But, how does one go about that?

What is true worship like? King David realized that he had to get his life in order, just as we need to, whether or not we realize it. We must seek true worship and prepare:

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O Elohim; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from Thy presence; and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation; and uphold me with Thy free spirit. Then will I teach transgressors Thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto Thee, Psalms 51:9-13.

Spirit and Truth Available!

For those that desire to worship in Spirit and in Truth, there must first be an understanding of the desperate state of being one is in. We have all sinned; committed acts contrary to Yahweh’s laws. Yahweh’s Word demands obedience. When sin enters the picture there must be sacrificial blood shed — a life for breaking His law. When speaking of the 10 Commandments it has been said they are just that; they’re not the “10 Suggestions” as some have

Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you, for on Him the Father, Yahweh, has set His seal.

John 6:26 NASB

Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. Matthew 7:13 ESV pointed out.

There are things to do and a Spirit that is offered to those that strive to do what Yahweh says to do. Acts 5:32 says, And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom Elohim hath given to them that obey Him.

Yahshua, the Son of Yahweh, shed His blood as payment for you and I. But, in no way, shape or form, did He say, "Now you can disobey My Father." Didn't happen. Request your free copy of What Happened To Christianity?

Yahweh and Yahshua in John 1:1-2

Why does eSword omit the inclusion of Strong's #3588? It may be due to the idiomatic form seen within the verse. John 1:1-2, in eSword, we find the following:

John 1:1 In¹⁷²² the beginning⁷⁴⁶ was²²⁵⁸ the³⁵⁸⁸ Word,³⁰⁵⁶ and²⁵³² the³⁵⁸⁸ Word³⁰⁵⁶ was²²⁵⁸ with⁴³¹⁴ God,²³¹⁶
and²⁵³² the³⁵⁸⁸ Word³⁰⁵⁶ was²²⁵⁸ God.²³¹⁶ 1:2 The same³⁷⁷⁸ was²²⁵⁸ in¹⁷²² the beginning⁷⁴⁶ with⁴³¹⁴ God.²³¹⁶

John 1:1-2, in the PC Study Bible, the Interlinear Transliterated Bible. Copyright (c) 1994 by Biblesoft, we find:

John 1:1-2

Hóutos eén en archeé prós (tón) Theón

Notice the Greek words in the Biblesoft Interlinear that do not appear in eSword. I've italicized, made bold, and put in parenthesis, three Greek manuscript words in question. I've also added the article (the) in bold in two of them to show the missing English words in order to differentiate between THE Mighty One, ton Theón, and A Mighty One, theós. Why are the Greek words missing in the English translation? Simple; the idiom in English is to not place an article ("the") when using a title as part of a name.

For example, we would say, "King David", not "The King David." This phenomenon leads people to believe that the title, "God" is in fact His name. Seeing the article ton in front of Theón tells me that John is identifying "The Mighty One," who could be none other than Yahweh. The absence of an article in front of theós tells me that John is identifying "a Mighty One," who could be none other than Yahshua the Messiah. I contend that the meanings thus derived distinguish Yahweh from Yahshua.

Therefore, in a Hebraic sense, the verse should read, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with Yahweh, and the Word was Elohim. The same was in the beginning with Yahweh."

“God” – NT:2316

theos (teh'-os); of uncertain affinity; a deity, especially (with NT:3588) the supreme Divinity; figuratively, a magistrate; by Hebraism, very: KJV - exceeding, God, god [-ly, -ward].

“The” – NT:3588

Sin Defined by Scripture

As we come into a correct understanding of Scripture, we find sin is defined as law breaking. The reality is, however, our understanding can go more in-depth. True, we understand that breaking Yahweh's instructions (law) is sin, as John points out, "...sin is lawlessness," 1 John 3:4b NASB. We comprehend that we are also to obey the laws that man has, which are provided for by Yahweh, as Paul brings forth, Let every being be in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from Elohim, and the authorities that exist are appointed by Elohim. So he who opposes the authority withstands the institution of Elohim, and those who withstand shall bring judgment on themselves, Romans 13:1-2 TS.

For us, man's laws cannot trump Yahweh's. As we see Peter, along with the other Apostles, explaining, "We have to obey Elohim rather than men," Acts 5:29b TS. This, with other matters we become aware of, would be covered by the following statement: "...to one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin," James 4:17 NASB. Deeper yet, is the idea that whatever is not of faith, is, in itself, also sin: "for whatsoever is not of faith is sin," Romans 14:23b KJV. Yet, this is tied to the idea that we are not to disobey our Father's will for us. In context, if we do anything out of our own will, which would be contrary to the faith in Yahweh's will for us, then it is sin to us. This is how faith in Yahshua can actually be defined conceptually as obedience to the Father.
