Consequences of a very bad choice

Yahweh created the first man and woman, Adam and Eve, and placed them in a beautiful garden called Eden. The garden was abundant in plant life. Yahweh watered it with a mist. He taught Adam and Even how to live and what is good. Two trees were placed in the garden: The tree of life, and the Tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Adam and were commanded not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Yahweh told them that eating from it would bring death to them and all people.

Satan, the devil, in the form of a serpent, appeared to Eve and tempted her to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. He put doubts in her mind and told her that she would not die as Yahweh had warned them. Basically, Satan implied that Yahweh was lying to Adam and Eve as to the true nature of the tree. Satan implied that the tree would make Eve wise. She took the bait and ate of it, and her husband ate also. This was a very bad choice. Yahweh told them that because of their actions, mankind would have troubles and sorrow. Indeed, look at the world around you. Mankind has been suffering ever since Adam and Eve made their fateful choice to disobey Yahweh. When confronted by Yahweh, Adam blamed Eve and Eve blamed Satan.

Satan started all the disobedience against Yahweh and all the trouble and rebellion. Satan is the prince of the power of the air moving peoples minds to do wrong. Listening to Satan has changed the nature of people and even animals. So we learn from this account that making bad choices can have a lasting impact and permanent consequences. But praise Yahweh, all is not lost. He sent Yahshua to this earth two thousand years ago to enact a plan to redeem mankind.
