Why Rules are Important

Gloria is eight years old. She had just gotten through complaining to her mother about all the many rules she was required to follow both at home and at school. "Rules, rules, rules!" said Gloria, "Why can't I just do what I want?"

Her patient mother sat Gloria down and explained, "Gloria, everyone needs to follow rules, even adults. Our Heavenly Father made rules for our own good. Rules can keep us safe and healthy too!"

Gloria thought about what her mother said, and asked, "What kind of rules does Yahweh want us to follow?"

"Rules that help every area of our lives," answered Mother. "For instance, Yahweh gave us rules about what we should and shouldn't eat. Certain things are good for our health, while other things destroy our health. Yahweh loves us and wants us to live long, healthy lives. He even knew that people would need a special day of rest every week, which is why He gave us the Sabbath Day!"

Gloria was starting to understand that most rules are for our own good. "What would happen if there were no rules?" She asked.

"Yahweh gave the Israelites rules to follow. When they obeyed, things went well for them. When they didn't obey, bad things happened to them, and they suffered. It is the same with us," answered Mother. "Yahweh had to punish the Israelites for not obeying Him. Just like Daddy and I have to punish you and your little brother when you don't obey. What if there were no rules for driving? If everyone did whatever they wanted to on the highways, many accidents would be happening and people would get hurt, or worse!"

Gloria finally understood how important rules are. So she determined to do her best to follow them! She wanted things to go well for her. How about you? Don't you want life to go well for you, too?
