Psalm 100: The Heart of Worship

Read Psalm 100 in your Bible, or have your parents read it to you. We can learn a lot from these short 5 verses. As we can easily agree, there are many reasons for praising Yahweh.

Verse 1 teaches us that Yahweh is the ruler over everyone and everything. When we shout with joy, we express our gratitude for Yahweh's power.

Verse 2 shows us that worship is a service to Yahweh. Worship should be done joyfully, not out of duty alone. We should enjoy worshipping Him. Yahweh expects worship from the heart.

Verse 3 reminds us that Yahweh is our Creator. All things belong to Him. This also means that He is in control of all things.

Verse 4 tells us to come into Yahweh's presence with gratitude and praise. We should not come to worship in a bad mood and a complaining attitude. Yahweh is looking for a cheerful countenance. It's true that everyone has bad days, but be aware that Yahweh is looking at what's in our hearts. Try not to stay in a bad mood for long.

Verse 5 reminds us that Yahweh is good. His love is eternal. And His faithfulness is continual. These are even more reasons to come before Him praising His awesome Name!

1 A psalm. For giving grateful praise.

2 Worship Yahweh with gladness; come before Him with joyful songs.

3 Know that Yahweh is Elohim. It is He who made us, and we are His; we are His people, the sheep of His pasture.

4 Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise; give thanks to Him and praise His name.

5 For Yahweh is good and His love endures forever; His faithfulness continues through all generations.
