Troubler of Israel

I viewed a poster which showed Elijah speaking to King Ahab, who was seeking to kill Elijah, and asked, in 1 Kings 18:17, "Art thou he that troubleth Israel?" On the poster, at the bottom, read, "Where are the Prophets that are TROUBLING America?" I considered the message and thought to myself, "The idea of speaking out against evil authority, would not be complete without Elijah's response to Ahab:

1 Kings 18:18 - And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of Yahweh, and thou hast followed the Ba'als [the Lords].

We understand that Elijah is not condemning ISRAEL, but he is condemning the LEADERSHIP of Yahweh's chosen people. The so-called Spiritual leaders of our nation today are indeed troubling Israel ... NOT the nation-state of Israel in the Middle East, but the Whole Congregation of the House of Israel - those who worship Yahweh according to HIS will; according to HIS commandments AND our respect for HIS Messiah, Yahshua.

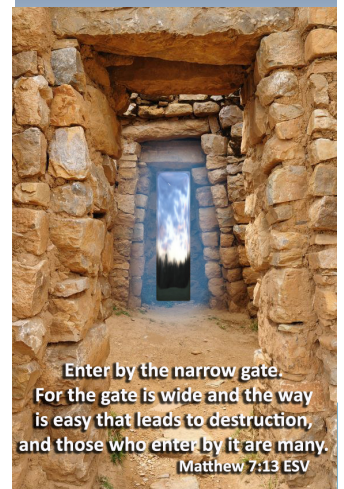

By worshiping on Sunday, celebrating Christmas to New Years and Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday, they flaunt the Word of Yahweh and His Son ... to their own destruction. Consider that Christmas to New Years is 8 days, and Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday is also 8 days. These are REPLACEMENTS for the first day of the Feast of Tabernacles to the Eighth Day and the Day of Passover to the last day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread!

John Darby is perhaps the best-known of the Dispensationalists, who have separated Israel from the "Church", the Law from Grace. But, there IS NO separation between the two. There is only ONE congregation. It is ISRAEL, with Yahshua Messiah at its HEAD.

Revelation 14:12 - Here is the patience of the saints [meaning, "This is

"Up, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.' For thus says Yahweh of hosts: 'He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye. For surely I will shake My hand against them, and they shall become spoil for their servants. Then you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent Me.'" Zechariah 2:7-9 NKJV

Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. Matthew 7:13 ESV how the Saints, the Called-out Ones, the ekklesia, will endure to the end."], here are those who keep the commandments of Yahweh and the faith of Yahshua.

What is the FAITH of Yahshua? The answer is, "Obedience to Yahweh". THAT is HIS Faith! This is the faith of the House of Israel (Ephraim) and the House of Judah, who will be brought together when Messiah returns; and, those who are outside of this Body, the Messiah says, will not be able to enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh.

Matthew 7:21-23 - "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Master!' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the WILL of My Father in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, 'Master!', have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice LAWLESSNESS!'"

To KNOW the Messiah, or anyone for that matter, is to BECOME them. This is the Heart of intimacy. This is the LOVE that Yahweh and His Son have shown to us. It is only fitting that we should become THEM.

Matthew 5:48 - "Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect." Let us obey our Father and follow the direction of His Son. HalleluYah!

Elder John Fisher

New Cameras

For those who are watching the videos, either through DVDs or online archives, the newest videos will have a better color, sharpness and overall visible quality to them. This is due to having acquired some new cameras, which are actually used (though, in like-new condition). Unbelievable to us was the fact that these Sony cameras were about $3000 each just a few years ago, but now are about $500.

We acquired three of these to replace our older cameras, one of which was over 25 years old. These new cameras are not HD as we could not afford those, but we are very pleased with the improved look from the newer cameras. You'll be seeing the results as we send out the DVDs from now on and archiving the video online. We thank Yahweh through His Son Yahshua for providing them. We thank all of you for your continued prayers and support for this ministry as we move forward.

New Archeological Find

This undated photo released by the Israel Antiquities Authority, shows a 3,000 year old ceramic jar with inscription of a name mentioned in the Bible, "Eshbaal Ben Beda." Israel's antiquities authority says archaeologists have discovered a rare 3,000-year-old inscription of a name mentioned in the Bible. Eshbaal of the Bible was a son of King Saul. Archaeologists said Tuesday, June 16, 2015 it is the first time the name was discovered in an ancient inscription. It is one of only four inscriptions discovered from the biblical 10th century B.C. Kingdom of Judah, when King David is said to have reigned. (Tal Rogovski/Israel Antiquities Authority via AP)

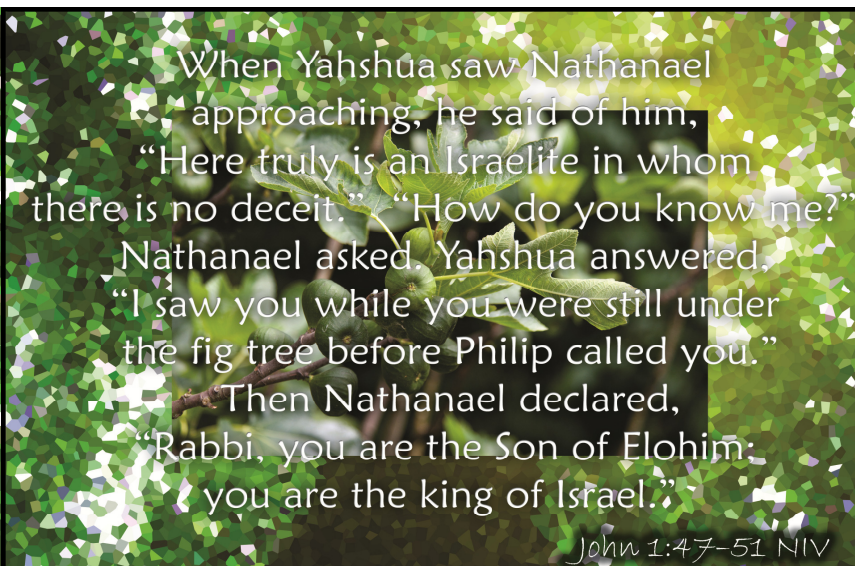

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel's antiquities authority says archaeologists have discovered a rare 3,000-year-old inscription of a name mentioned in the Bible. The name "Eshbaal Ben Beda" appears on a large ceramic jar. Eshbaal of the Bible was a son of King Saul. Archaeologists Yosef Garfinkel and Saar Ganor say the jar belonged to a different Eshbaal, likely the owner of an agricultural estate. They said Tuesday it is the first time the name was discovered in an ancient inscription. It is one of only four inscriptions discovered from the biblical 10th century B.C. Kingdom of Judah, when King David is said to have reigned. Archaeologists pieced together the inscription from pottery shards found at a 2012 excavation in the Valley of Elah in central Israel.

Pre-existence of Yahshua Question

Q: I had a concern about the preexistence of Yahshua. I have recently left the "trinity" doctrine and have settled into this "Hebrew roots" movement. I read all the arguments against the trinity doctrine and I do agree. The problem lies with the nature of Yahshua. I have not found where the Son was known in the Old Testament, and the fact that the Jews never believed He preexisted seems to confirm my thoughts. Where does it speak of the Son in the Old Testament? Also, if we are to say that the Father created the Son before the world and the Son helped in creation, would that not be paganism? Could you help me understand this please? Thank you.

A: Thanks for contacting us and for the questions. I believe it is better to describe Yahshua as having been begotten of the Father, rather than created. Some Jews do refer to what they call the Metatron as the smaller or lesser Yahweh. In essence, they are believing in Two Yahwehs. We see the Scripture showing the Messenger of Yahweh (Ex. 23:20-22), as the pre-existent Son. There are allusions to Yahshua in the Psalms pointing to the idea that Yahweh has a Son. One of which is found in Psalm 2:7-9,12 (NASB), which says, "I will surely tell of the decree of Yahweh: He said to Me, 'You are My Son, Today I have begotten You. Ask of Me, and I will surely give the nations as Your inheritance, and the very ends of the earth as Your possession. You shall break them with a rod of iron, You shall shatter them like earthenware.' Do homage to the Son, that He not become angry, and you perish in the way, for His wrath may soon be kindled. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him!" See also Psalm 30:4.

The evidence we see for the pre-existence of the Son as a Mediator between Yahweh and mankind is overwhelming. He spoke as Yahweh for Yahweh and was even called Yahweh (Gen. 19:24; Zech. 3:1-2) besides all the various Titles (e.g., Elohim, Messenger of Yahweh, The Rock, etc.). He became as a man, in appearance, when wrestling Jacob (Gen. 32:24) and after that appeared to Joshua (Josh. 5:13-15). It is clear to Whom these men were speaking with. Not just a mere man, but the Son of Yahweh.

It's interesting that paganism has stories of a world flood and the Canaanites had a deity named El, but all it proves to me is that the nations like to borrow what had already existed or had been told before. I believe and have faith that the Scripture is accurate and inspired of Yahweh. I'm glad that you're seeing the fallacy of the Trinity. John 17 is certainly a hard chapter to try and reconcile the Trinitarian concept with.

Racist Question

Q: How can I love someone who shows racism toward me? Why is there so much hatred in the world.

A: Racism, and all the other "isms" (like nationalism, religionism, genderism, etc., are based in FEAR. The solution to racism (etc.)) is RELATIONSHIP. Those who are willing to risk being REJECTED by someone they are afraid of (or, someone who is afraid of THEM) ... AND are ACCEPTED by those they feel threatened by ... will overcome whatever "ism" they have come to believe. This is the Heart of "loving thy neighbor" (Leviticus 19:18); as taught by Yahshua Messiah in the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:21-37). Who is my neighbor? The one you hate! ... or the one who hates you; even, your enemy (Matthew 5:43-48).

Why is there so much hatred in the world? Because people are afraid. Period. Often, it isn't the "enemy" a person is afraid of ... it is the culture around them that would ridicule and reject them for associating with the "enemy." Even Peter, in Mark 14:69-72, was so AFRAID of being beaten and captured, as Yahshua had just been, that he angrily CURSED and denied even knowing the Messiah! He wept in shame to have done this. How many of us have regretted something we said in anger! Developing loving, respectful relationships is THE answer. The question is, "Do you know how to love your enemy?" ## Did you know?

In John 12:50 NASB it says, "I know that His commandment is eternal life; therefore the things I speak, I speak just as the Father has told Me."

In the Greek Interlinear the word commandment is singular, but in the Aramaic it is a plural word. The passage would then read, "I know that His commandments are eternal life; therefore the things I speak, I speak just as the Father has told Me."

The passage now reads as the rest of the Bible teaches. That is, we are to obey Yahweh's commandments (plural). Ps. 119:160.
