Come, Now Is The Time!

“Come, now is the time,” sung out the three ministers who collectively came together to use their musical talents to praise the Heavenly Father. They didn’t use His Name, but they had the right intention. Though their song now fades into the background, as new ones are produced by various artists, the call to worship is still urgent.

For those that do use the Sacred Names of both the Father (Yahweh) and the Son (Yahshua), there is a collective cry that “Now is the time!” Even the Apostle Paul said, in his day, “ Now is the day of salvation!”

We then, as workers together with Him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of Elohim in vain. For He saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation, 2 Corinthians 6:1-2.

Time for True Worship

As we see certain “signs of the times,” we must realize that the purpose for us today is to draw close to our Father through His Son. But, how does one go about that?

What is true worship like? King David realized that he had to get his life in order, just as we need to, whether or not we realize it. We must seek true worship and prepare:

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O Elohim; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from Thy presence; and take not Thy holy spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation; and uphold me with Thy free spirit. Then will I teach transgressors Thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto Thee, Psalm 51:9-13.

Spirit and Truth Available!

For those desiring to worship in spirit and in truth, there must first be an understanding of the desperate state of being one is in. We have all sinned

“Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of Yahweh, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in Himself, even so He gave to the Son also to have life in Himself.”

— John 5:25–26 NASB

“Do not marvel at this; for an hour is coming, in which all who are in the tombs will hear His voice, and will come forth; those who did the good deeds to a resurrection of life, those who committed the evil deeds to a resurrection of judgment.”

— John 5:28–29 NASB

and committed acts contrary to Yahweh's laws. Yahweh's Word demands obedience. When sin enters the picture sacrificial blood must be shed. A life for breaking His law.

When speaking of the 10 Commandments it has been said they are not the "10 Suggestions" as some have jokingly pointed out. There are things to do and a Spirit that is offered to those that strive to do what Yahweh says to do. Acts 5:32 says, And we are His witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom Elohim hath given to them that obey Him.

Yahshua, the Son of Yahweh, shed His blood as payment for you and I. But, in no way, shape or form, did He say, "Now you can disobey My Father."Didn't happen.

One of the things that did change, for those in Messiah, is we no longer have to do physical sacrifices. The book of Hebrews points this out quite clearly, and it wasn't just pointed it out to the Jews. It's pointed out to all who desire to worship the Father as He sees fit. It's His will for us today. Come, now is the time.

Trumpets New Moon

New moons are designated to establish biblical months. While new moons do establish the seven annual Feasts, they do not establish the weekly pattern, nor the seventh day Sabbath. The new moons also do not establish the sabbatical year pattern of seven for agricultural crops. This year's biblical seventh month (for the North American Region land mass) began with the sighting of the new moon on the evening of 09-28-11. It confirmed our calculations for the Feast of Trumpets (09-29-11). See the YAIY calendar for 2011.

"Originally, the New Moon was not fixed by astronomical calculations, but was solemnly proclaimed after witnesses had testified to the reappearance of the crescent of the moon. On the 30th of each month, the members of the High Court assembled in a courtyard in Jerusalem, named Beit Ya'azek, where they waited to receive the testimony of two reliable witnesses; they then sanctified the New Moon."

— Encyclopaedia Judaica

"...with what care and anxiety its appearance was ascertained from witnesses who had actually seen it; also how the tidings were afterwards communicated to those at a distance. For the new moon was reckoned by actual personal observation, not by astronomical calculation."

— The Temple, its ministry and services as they were at the time of Jesus Christ, by Alfred Edersheim (2003, page 289).

"The beginnings of the months were determined by direct observation of the new moon...witnesses had testified that they had seen the new crescent."

Seven Benefits of Overcoming Trials

We rely less on our self. “For we do not want you to be unaware, brethren, of our affliction which came to us in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life; 9 indeed, we had the sentence of death within ourselves so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in Yahweh Who raises the dead,” 2 Corinthians 1:8–9.

We draw closer to Yahweh. “Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises,” James 5:13.

We learn patience. “Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance,” James 1:2-3.

We build Spiritual muscle. “...solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil,” Hebrews 5:14.

We learn to be compassionate toward others. “Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master Yahshua Messiah, the Father of mercies and Elohim of all comfort, 4 Who comforts us in all our affliction so that we will be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by Yahweh,” 2 Corinthians 1:3–4.

We become joyful when we overcome certain trials. “As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of Yahweh. 11 We count those blessed who endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of Yahweh’s dealings, that Yahweh is full of compassion and is merciful,” James 5:10–11.

We will be welcomed to enter into the coming Kingdom. “His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master,’” Matthew 25:21. Seven Promises With Conditions

Psalm 91:14-16 “Because he has loved Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him securely on high, because he has known My Name. 15 He will call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him. 16 With a long life I will satisfy him And let him see My Salvation.”

Seven promises:

I will deliver him
I will set him securely on high
I will answer him
I will be with him in trouble
I will rescue him and honor him
I will satisfy him
I will let him see My salvation

Three conditions:

He has loved Me
He has known My Name
He will call upon Me

Aaronic or Levitical Priests?

Aaron's sons were technically the priests we find in Numbers 3:10 “So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons that they may keep their priesthood, but the layman who comes near shall be put to death.” And there are distinctions noted between priests and Levites in certain areas of Scripture like 1 Chronicles 23:1–2 “Now when David reached old age, he made his son Solomon king over Israel. 2 And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites.”

Here, though, we find Levi designated as priests. Deuteronomy 18:1–2 “The Levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel; they shall eat Yahweh's offerings by fire and His portion. 2 They shall have no inheritance among their countrymen; Yahweh is their inheritance, as He promised them.”

While there is some question as to why the Levites are referred to as a priesthood, it is found in the fact that Aaron was a Levite. Exodus 4:12–14 “Now then go, and I, even I, will be with your mouth, and teach you what you are to say.’ 13 But he said, ‘Please, Master, now send the message by whomever You will.’ 14 Then the anger of Yahweh burned against Moses, and He said, ‘Is there not your brother Aaron the Levite? I know that he speaks fluently. And moreover, behold, he is coming out to meet you; when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.’”

In the coming Kingdom we find prophecy, through the vision of Ezekiel of a new physical temple in the promised land. Though Levi and the rest of Israel went astray, Yahweh will bring them into the kingdom as a physical people. The Levites in particular will be doing blood sacrifices for the physical people. Ezekiel 44:10–11 “But the Levites who went far from Me when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me after their idols, shall bear the punishment for their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house and ministering in the house; they shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.”
