The amazing life of David

David, of the tribe of the Judah, was the youngest son of Jesse. Jesse was a farmer and sheep breeder. David had a very colorful life. One of thing most people remember from Scripture, is that David was a “man after Yahweh’s own heart.” Another thing people remember is that David slew the Philistines’ champion, the giant Goliath. But something that many forget, is that David was a poet and musician, too. He wrote most of the Psalms. It was obvious that David thought about Yahweh a lot. He pondered the deeper things and mysteries of Yahweh. We should, too.

but he repented of his sins. We can, too. David slew Goliath when he was just a youth. He trusted Yahweh so much, even from a young age, that he was brave and courageous, even when others were terrified. We are never too young or too old to have a personal relationship with Yahweh. We can pray to Yahweh at any time. He wants us to come to Him. David delighted in the Law of Yahweh, and meditated upon it day and night. (To meditate means to think deeply about something). We are expected to meditate upon Yahweh’s Word. In the Bible, we truly find the words of life within its pages.

Yahweh’s way of life is the best way. Things go well for us when we do what Yahweh says. He wants to give us eternal life. Yahweh doesn’t enjoy when we suffer every time we make a bad decision. Choose life!
