WHO WAS PAUL?

The Apostle Paul wrote many of the letters of the New Testament, but he started out his life in a very different way. In Hebrew, his name is Sha'ul Paul began as a Pharisee. The Pharisees were a strict sect of Jews who adhered fiercely to the law of Moses. They despised anything and anyone that could potentially "contaminate" them, especially the Gentiles. Anything Greek would have been avoided in Paul's household, yet it appears he could speak Greek. Paul was from Tarsus, a city in South Central Turkey, and of the tribe of Benjamin.

In his writings, Paul admitted he had been schooled at the feet of a rabbi named Gamaliel in Judea, most likely starting at the age of thirteen, as most Jewish boys of his time, would have done. Paul eventually grew up to persecute the followers of

Paul's Missionary Journeys

Yahshua, something he was well-known for. Yahshua's followers feared Paul tremendously. But Yahshua had big plans for Paul. He met him on the road to Damascus and blinded him, demanding, "Paul, why are you persecuting me?" This was a powerful conversion experience for Paul. His life would never be the same. He became one of the most devoted followers of Yahshua. At first Yahshua's followers viewed Paul with fear and suspicion. But Paul proved to be a useful tool in Yahweh's Hand. Paul was used to further the Good News about Yahweh, even to the Gentiles. In fact, Paul eventually exclusively preached to them, after being rejected by his own countrymen. He traveled far and wide, making many believers. Paul was very brave in sharing his faith with others. Let us do the same.
