Counting to Pentecost

Now that Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread are behind us, we can look forward to Pentecost in June! Pentecost is a very special Holy Day with deep spiritual meaning. Pentecost is a Greek word meaning, “count 50.” It is also known by other names. In the Hebrew it is known as “Shavuot.” You may also have heard it called the “Feast of Weeks.” On our Gregorian calendars, Pentecost is always kept in either May or June.

In the Old Testament, the giving of the Law occurred on Pentecost. Yahweh knows what is best for us. Yahweh gave His Law for our benefit. Keeping His Law helps our lives go well.

In the New Testament, in the book of Acts, the first century believers were gathered together keeping Pentecost. The Set-apart Spirit was poured out upon them by Yahweh, and they were able to speak in other languages! It appeared as tongues of fire hovering above the heads of those assembled. The Spirit was given to help us keep the law in our walk with Yahshua. (See Jeremiah 31:33 and Ezekiel 36:26-27.) Pentecost has also been referred to as the day the New Covenant Assembly was born.

Remember how we had to remove leaven before Passover and eat unleavened bread for seven days? On Pentecost, two leavened loaves of bread are offered. Leavened loaves represent us because we are imperfect. Leavening symbolizes sin and impurity. But we are to strive toward perfection. Yahshua’s perfect blood paid for our sins, making us new creatures at baptism. May your Pentecost be joyful!
