Your Best Friend

Most of us have friends. You know, the people we play sports with, or talk to on the phone, and share ice cream with. But did you know that you have another, even more important Friend? Yes, I'm speaking of Yahweh! Have you ever considered Yahweh as a Friend? The concept might be difficult to accept, but Yahweh even called Moses His friend, so we too, can be Yahweh's friends, just like Moses was.

A friendship is difficult to maintain if we don't make an effort. Communication is the key. More than likely, we spend time talking to our friends, right? Well, that is where prayer comes in. Prayer is, simply put, having a conversation with Yahweh. He wants us to come to Him and tell Him everything that is important to us! Of course He knows what we need before we ask Him, but He still expects us to talk to Him.

There are some guidelines to prayer, however. For instance, you always want to speak respectfully to Yahweh. He is not like our earthly friends where we can joke around a lot with. A relationship with the Creator of the universe is a serious matter. Also, we can make requests of Yahweh for ourselves and other people, but we must be sure they are not selfish requests. Giving honor to Yahweh is also important. Tell Him how happy you are to serve Him, and that you love the things He created! Be sure to talk to Yahweh every day. Before you go to bed is a great time, because you won't be stressed out about making it to school on time, or other distracting daily activities. Enjoy time with your Best Friend today!
