Noah: A man with a mission

In Noah's day, mankind had become so wicked that Yahweh directed him to build a great seaworthy vessel called an ark, to preserve both mankind and animals. Yahweh was going to flood the entire earth. He was so sad that He had made mankind. Noah tried to warn people, but they scoffed at him.

So Noah set out to work on this huge project. There was a very specific way Yahweh wanted him to build the ark. Yahweh told him to take seven clean animals each, and two unclean animals each. Once Noah did all that Yahweh commanded, he took his wife, his three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth and his three daughters-in-law with all the animals, and the door was shut. It rained for forty days and forty nights. This must have felt like a very long time for the people inside.

In the course of time, Noah sent out a dove to see if the waters had receded from the earth. In due time, the ark came to rest on Mount Ararat. From this family, the earth was repopulated. But mankind once again became corrupt. And once again, Yahweh will need to purify the earth – the next time with fire, as He promised not to flood the earth ever again. He gave us a beautiful sign in the sky to remember His promise – a rainbow, a very visible reminder of Yahweh's promise to mankind.

Yahweh will not always deal with sinful mankind. He sent Yahshua to die for our sins. And Yahshua will return again. Yahweh's Kingdom will be set up. Those of us who overcome to the end will be there! And you can be there too. Set your mind on Yahweh now. Eternal life in paradise can be yours.

PSALM 45:17, NRSV

PSALM 111
1 Halleluyah. I will praise Yahweh with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.
2 The works of Yahweh are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
3 His work is honourable and majestic: and his righteousness endureth for ever.
4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: Yahweh is gracious and full of compassion.
