Special Presentation DVD Available

A special presentation of the Restoration of Israel is now available on DVD as an outreach tool to all denominational pastors, rabbis, teachers and preachers of Scripture.

This is specifically geared as a helpful aid for ministers and leaders who may be in need of a better understanding of just what the Messiah of Israel came to do on earth.

Request your free copy today for the Christian Pastor or Jewish Rabbi that you believe may be helped by such a presentation.

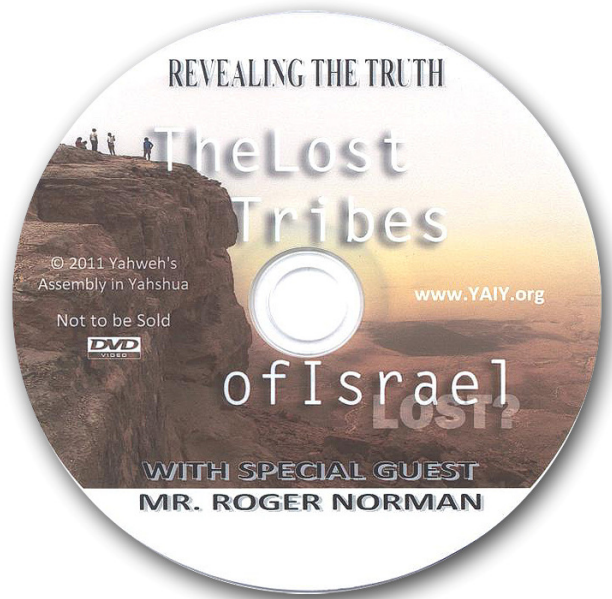

The Lost Tribes DVD

We were recently asked if we still have the DVD available with special guest Roger Norman concerning The Lost Tribes of Israel. Indeed, we still have these and they are available free of charge. Ask for yours today.

Just as a reminder: Yahweh's Assembly in Yahshua is an independent international organization not supportive of false doctrines that lead to slavery, polygamy, racism, militancy, etc. We are not affiliated with any militant groups that use the Sacred Names.

Here there is no Gentile or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Messiah is all, and is in all, Colossians 3:11 NIV.

The Third Day?

Q: Can you explain why, if there is three days and three nights, in which the Savior was buried, does Luke 24:21 indicate that He was actually up and walking on the third day?

A: Hebrew idioms can be confusing. A general term as “third day” spoken of in this case (Luke 24), being after the fact, obviously references the “three days and three nights” which Yahshua said He would be in the belly of the earth. A sign of Jonah, the only sign He gave which would prove He is the Messiah.

If we apply the clear to the unclear, we can have an understanding. For example, in context, Luke chapter 24 says at the start: “...on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Master Yahshua,” (verses 1-3). “...And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem,” (verse 13). “Very” is an added word in this particular translation (NASB), but the fact is the day being spoken of is the first day of the week. Any dictionary will say the first day of the week is Sunday. “But they urged Him, saying, ‘Stay with us, for it is getting toward evening, and the day is now nearly over.’ So He went in to stay with them,” (verse 29). “The Master has really risen and has appeared to Simon,” (verse 34).

The above has verse 21 in between. The following commentator notes it is difficult idiom to understand. But, in context of clear verses, showing He was raised before Saturday at sunset, it is understood.

“To-day is the third day (τρίτην ταύτην ἡμέραν ἄγει σήμερον). The best texts omit to-day. The phrase forms an idiom which cannot be neatly rendered. Literally it is, ‘He [Messiah] is passing (ἄγει) this day as the third.’” Vincent, M. R. (1887). Word studies in the New Testament (Lk 24:21).

It’s also interesting to note in Genesis 22:4, “the third day,” was before they got to the mountain for the sacrifice (Heb. 11:19). In fact, going back to Luke 24:21, there are at least two translations (Moffat, Knox, and possibly others), which say, “Three days have passed.” Please see our study, He Arose...But When? and Why Passover is Not a High Day.

Documentary Hypothesis?

Q: May I ask do you believe the J Source is the oldest manuscript? In J source, Yahweh is used exclusively, and in the tampered E source, Elohim was added to replace Yahweh by corrupted Jews. Your thoughts?

A: There are scholars who disagree with the whole theory that there were differing manuscripts from different sources which made up the Book of Moses. I tend to also disagree. We know Yahshua quoted a section of Exodus and referred to the Book of Moses (Mark 12:26), evidently Genesis to Deuteronomy.

The Dead Sea Scrolls, which were a thousand years older than the oldest Hebrew texts we had at the time, testify to the accuracy of the transmission. At least, that is, between that particular time period, since they were essentially, for the most part, letter for letter accurate.

E. W. Bullinger, who was a language expert, did testify to about 134 areas he believed had been tampered with concerning Yahweh's Name (Appendix 32, The Companion Bible). I'm just not sure what he and other linguists saw, that they chose those 134 areas and not others. If you know or find out, please let me know. I would be interesting in knowing more about it.

A couple other thoughts. First, I would point out in the Book of Daniel that Yahweh's Name isn't brought out until Daniel's prayer (Dan. 9:3-19). Does this suggest there were different sources used to put together the whole? I don't really think so. Secondly, Yahshua confirmed Daniel as the author (Matt. 24:15), He did the same with Moses (John 5:46). These were Yahshua's thoughts on the matter. Hope this is helpful to you.
