Yahshua Chooses His disciples

Two thousand years ago, Yahshua began to travel through the countryside, talking about Yahweh, His Father. Everywhere He went, crowds gathered and people asked many questions. One day, He went up on a mountain alone to pray. The next morning, He came down from the mountain and chose the twelve right men to help him teach, preach, and heal in His Father's Name.

Their names were: Peter, James, John, Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, a second James, Thaddeus, Simon, and Judas Iscariot. These were interesting fellows! Four of them (Peter, Andrew, James, and John) worked as fisherman.

In fact, we read of a very special event regarding fishing. The men had just brought their boats ashore, but Yahshua told them to go back out saying, "You will catch fish!" But Peter replied, "We worked hard fishing all day and did not catch a single fish. But we will do as You say." The men let down their nets. They caught so many fish that the nets began to break!

Then Yahshua told them something profound: Don't be afraid. Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men. This means that Yahshua would use these men to bring more people into His fold.

Sadly, not all the disciples were good. Judas Iscariot was the one who betrayed Yahshua.
